MURDER MYSTERY

DINNER THEATRE

Shared Christmas Parties

You are invited to the press conference to welcome the return to Blighty of the intrepid explorer, Lord William Stoker.

The Plot - Christmas 1920

The newspaper baron, Sir Bever-Beck, has arranged for an elaborate press conference to welcome his friend Lord Stoker back from the Amazon in time for Christmas - a splendid dinner dance at the Radisson Edwardian Hotel. As the VIPs & guests mingle to enjoy their festive Prosecco, suspense is hanging in the air. His Lordship is just about to reveal an exciting discovery, but, midway through his speech, tragedy strikes!

Who wants His Lordship silenced? What is the secret that Lady Rosemary, his childhood sweetheart, has kept hidden? Who was the Rev. Riddle taking confession from? And what evidence has the newspaper photographer, Miss Shandy, unknowingly recorded on her little box brownie?

There is no escape, as motives, secrets and lies will be uncovered as the evening progresses...

The Murder Mystery Dinner Show

Starts at 7.00pm as guests gather for a welcome drink and the actors introduce the characters and set the scene. At 7.30pm guests go through to the dining room to enjoy a 3 course gala dinner.

Throughout dinner, the plot thickens and with the assistance of clue kits and some super sleuthing, you get the chance to catch the killer!

Prizes are awarded to the Super Sleuths at around 9.30pm. Then the resident DJ takes over and it's dancing 'til 1am! Everyone is welcome to join in the fun and try to work out 'who done it!' The event promises an evening of excellent entertainment, high comedy and, of course, great food.
